SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School when children are present, is offered each Sunday.

Thanks to Jo who runs the Sunday School.

Thank you for the gifts of Easter eggs for distribution on Easter Sunday.

CCTV

The need for a new CCTV system has been agreed by the PCC as an essential safeguard, for both the security of the building, and the people who use the space in these ever changing times. Copies of the policy relating to CCTV's use at the Chapel Royal are on noticeboards in the church and the hall.

WELCOME

Thank you to all who have served, provided music and assisted with Holy Week Services.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM)

As required by Canon Law. This will be held after mass on Sunday 23rd April. Please do stay and participate but first grab yourself a coffee!
Thank you Fr. D x.

Election of Officers at the APCM

Election of Churchwardens. We will also need to elect a P.C.C. of nine persons & one Deanery Synod Rep.
Forms for PCC nominations are now available.

Choral Evensong. With the retirement of Brian Smith who directs the music, this and the relocation of John Ross, who plays the organ, means that consultation on its future will need to be considered.

The Oxfam Shop in Kensington Gardens sells Fairtrade goods. Its in the parish, a short walk from church.

Brighton May Festival begins
Saturday 6th May.

Tomorrow, Bank Holiday, the church will be closed.
