Notices

Floor cleaning this Monday

After Mass could we clear the church space? Thank you.

Fr David

A huge thank you to Mary and her merry band of helpers for putting on the Christmas Fair last Saturday. It raised £764.20. Well done everyone.

Thank you to Martin, our administrator, for his help with the IT repairs in the parish office.

Next year 24th April marks 20 years of me being at The Chapel Royal, and the 1st July 10 years of our new and separate parish.

31st December is the end of the Financial year for the church. If the Parish owes you money to cover purchases please speak to Maureen urgently to get a reimbursement

Christmas Cards

This year as an alternative to giving each other Christmas cards we will have a communal card at Church for everyone to sign. The money which would have been spent on cards will be collected and donated to the local organisation for the homeless The Clock Tower Sanctuary. There will be a collecting box in church for donations, or if you wish to gift aid you can donate to www.thects.org.uk/donate
Of course if you may choose to continue to send cards if you would prefer.

Wednesday 12th December, 'Blue Christmas'

A service of Remembrance for loved ones organised by Christopher Stringer Funeral Service at St Luke's Church Queens Park at 7.30 pm, followed by refreshments. If you want to attend please call 01273 306000.

Christmas Carols

Sunday, 23rd December at 3.30pm

Parish meal Wednesday 7pm 16th January 2019

The next meal is on the ground floor of Al Duomo an Italian restaurant near the Royal Pavilion. There is a sign up list on the table at the entrance. Still plenty of spaces if you want to come along.

If you would like to attend, but cannot afford it, please talk to Fr. D. in confidence. We would not want anyone to feel excluded by cost

'Advent Extra' books

Are available for this year's journey to Christmas.
