

Liturgical Celebrations

30th May - Ascension Day

June 30th - Celebrating 10 years as a parish
Sunday 30th June this year marks the ten years since we became again a separate Parish from St. Peter's.

What amazing things God has done in those 10 years.

Thanks be to God.

Bishop Richard of Lewes has kindly agreed to preside that morning.

Notices

Fr. David

Next Sunday marks my 20th Anniversary of being at The Chapel Royal. I've had four different roles in those twenty years.

Thanks to the organists and servers over this past Holy Week. Thanks to all greeters and readers, and those serving coffee and tea.

Thanks to all those who have help pay for the Easter flowers. They look fabulous. As always thanks also to Gunns Florist on the Steine for the floral arrangements.

Be blessed x

Thank you to Fr. Martin for his help and support over Holy Week and Easter, we are so blessed with his ministry here.

I'm off duty Tuesday, Thursday and Friday this week so there will not be a Mass on Tuesday or Thursday. Normal service begins next weekend.

Copies of the Annual Reports for 2018 are on the table by the entrance door. Do take one if you have not already done so.

It was lovely to welcome the Revd Doris Staniford with us for the for the Triduum. Doris was the first woman ordained as a priest in this Diocese and in May celebrates 25 years since that ordination. Deo Gratias.

Parish Meal

Parish meal is next Sunday 28th April at The Jury's Inn.

The Summer Parish Meal will be at The Regency on Wednesday, 3rd July, at 7.00 pm. It will be a set fish and chips menu at approx.£9 a head. There will be a veggie option and for those who are fish intolerant a meat one!

Welcoming at Sunday Mass

Thanks to all of the people who have taken up the important Ministry of Welcome each Sunday. All it takes is being friendly and smiling. If you would like to help out and are not on the list see Mary Woodhouse.
