Notices

Fr David

This Thursday, 20th June, Corpus Christi, and on the eve of the Longest Day there will be drinks in the Vicarage garden, weather permitting, from 7.30pm to 9.30pm. All are very welcome.

Sunday 30th June we welcome Richard, Bishop of Lewes as our Celebrant and Preacher at the 10.15 Parish Mass. Please support this, and tell him you like your parish priest!

Offering of gifts

If you would like to take part in this on a Sunday at Mass please see Mary Woodhouse, Churchwarden.

Freedom from Torture

'Broken jaw: Stories from Sri Lanka' 20th June 18.00. Minoli Salagado will read extracts from her new book 'Broken Jaw' that deal with the effect of war and displacement in Sri Lanka.

New Zealand Trip Home

My mother, who will turn 95 in mid August, has been Diagnosed with terminal cancer. As many will know, at her age, cancer often grows slowly. She underwent an operation 3 weeks ago to allow her some quality of life. She has always been pragmatic and has said in recent time, "at my age, you have to die of something." I will return to New Zealand from 19 July to 19 August to make what I expect will be my last visit home for parental reasons. Fr. Martin has very kindly agreed to cover the main services. This will mean the cancellation of some weekday and Saturday evening Masses. You will appreciate many clergy will be taking their annual leave at the same time.
