NEW ZEALAND TRIP HOME

My mother, who will turn 95 in mid August, has been Diagnosed with terminal cancer. As many will know, at her age, cancer often grows slowly. She underwent an operation 3 weeks ago to allow her some quality of life. She has always been pragmatic and has said in recent time, " at my age, you have to die of something." I will return to New Zealand from 19 July to 19 August to make what I expect will be my last visit home for parental reasons.

Fr. Martin has very kindly agreed to cover the main services. This will mean the cancellation of some weekday and Saturday evening Masses. You will appreciate many clergy will be taking their annual leave at the same time.
